Art Director on Halo Infinite multiplayer and live teams, and author of the Halo Art Index (Bungie Legacy Style Guide). At Bungie I helped shape Destiny's visual identity from its earliest beginnings, creating a universe from the ground up. Studio Art Director at Midnight Society, now Commerce & Events Art Lead on Marathon.

WHAT I BRING

Stewarded $5B franchises

Authored the Halo Art Index (Bungie Legacy Style Guide) to return Halo's art style to its legacy Bungie roots, directing a ~400-artist program through vision, style guides, and consumer products.

Built and ran a studio art team

Stood up and led a full game studio art team from scratch plus co-developers at Midnight Society, driving DEADROP from concept through seven pre-alphas and three major showcase events.

Drives live-service & commerce

Leads commerce, earnables, and live-events art on Marathon: seasonal cadence, monetization, and the business of a live game, not just its visuals.
